BLITZ COURAGE

"England is saying 'Thank God' for Canadian help to our sure finish—Victory," says Cecil E. Campbell of Maxwell Cottages, Union Path, Hitchen, Herts, England, in a letter to Canada. This is a particularly fine compliment, coming from Mr. Campbell. Because, whether this courageous, unassuming Britisher knows it or not, the rest of the democratic world is saying "Thank God" for people like him. Mr. Campbell had only one and a half legs. In fact, there are only a total of three legs in his immediate family, because his wife has only one and a half legs, too. Each underwent an amputation three inches below the knee after a bomb dropped near where they were helping to minimize the results of an air raid on London early this year.

They collected their toys and books, and various articles donated by the neighbors, and sold them for $2.70 in a stall on Patsy's lawn. The Red Cross is sending thanks to Patsy and her friends.

Russians Say Main Drives Halted, Nazis Claim 100,000 Prisoners

Canadian and Associated Press

The Russian army reported today it had wiped out Nazi advance tank forces in the Dvinsk and Minsk areas and stopped the fierce drives the Germans aimed at Moscow and Leningrad.

Farther south, a Soviet communique declared, other heavy blows were struck at strong German forces in the Luck area, gateway to the Ukraine.

Far to the north, above the Arctic Circle, a German offensive against the Sredni Peninsula, guarding the northern entrance to the ice-free port of Murmansk, was reported meeting "fierce resistance" by Soviet troops and suffering heavy losses.

A Stockholm dispatch to Reuter's news agency tonight said the Berlin correspondent of the Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet had been told by the Nazis that Murmansk, Russia's Arctic port, had been in German hands since yesterday. There was no confirmation, however, from other sources.

The Russian communique credited the Red air fleet's bombers with contributing greatly to the blocking of the Nazi thrusts by strafing advance troops and pounding the bases from which the attacks were sprung.

These reports, together with an earlier communique indicating the German drives were being checked, were regarded in Moscow as suggesting the front is becoming stabilized near the old Russian border.

Germans Claim 100,000 Prisoners

For its part, the German high command, claiming swift progress into Russia, asserted today that 100,000 Red army soldiers have been captured and "a large part" of Russia's allegedly trapped armies destroyed in the Bialystok-Minsk area.

Two communiques "from the Fuehrer's headquarters" also claimed ponderous quantities of Russian tanks and field guns seized.

A report by the British Broadcasting Corporation, picked up this afternoon in New York, said a Russian naval squadron has been destroyed and the German-occupied naval base at Constanta, on the Rumanian Black Sea coast.

Also as picked up in New York, Tabs, Russian news agency, reported by radio today from Moscow, that four German submarines had been sunk in three days by Soviet warships in the Baltic Sea.

In the German Industrial Areas

Russians Set Traps For Enemy Tanks

There were reports in Moscow that steel spearheads of the Nazis had driven into the Minsk area had fallen into entanglements. This was not elaborated officially.

The Russian communique made no mention of fighting in the direction of Bobruisk, on the Berezina River in the heart of White Russia, to which earlier war bulletins had referred.

The communique said Russian counter-attacks and a tight defence had frustrated several attempts to break through the Karelian Isthmus line toward Leningrad from Finland in the Kola Peninsula area.

In one attack along the Isthmus a battalion of Finnish White Guards was reported repulsed after thrusting into Soviet territory.

Red army forces pitted against another push in the direction of Leningrad "engaged in stubborn fighting against enemy tanks and infantry, frustrating their attempts to penetrate towards the crossing over the western Dvina." The river cuts through the centre of Latvia from Dvinsk to Riga Bay.

Nazis' Luck Drive Reported Stopped

On the southern flank of the front the Red army, while acknowledging withdrawal from Lwow, claimed that a strong Nazi drive toward the Ukraine through the Luck area had been stopped after days of fighting.

Of the Prut River, front the communique commented: "All attempts by Rumanian and German troops to penetrate into Bessarabian territory are being unavailingly broken up by the valiance and strength of our soldiers."

"Hitler's Rumanian flunkies, intoxicated by the boasting Fascist propaganda, hoped to follow the German troops into Bessarabia in a lightning stroke. "But the Rumanian generals, duped by Hitler, were cruelly disillusioned. German officers using coercion sent the Rumanians to certain death ahead of the German units."

Germans Say Big Army Destroyed

A special war bulletin from Hitler's headquarters today claimed elimination of a huge Red army force "east of Bialystok." This is the area in which the Germans have reported two Russian armies pocketed in the tongue of Soviet-occupied territory between East Prussia and German-occupied Poland.

In this battle, the Nazis claimed 400 captured armored cars and 300 cannon have been counted. Just to the south, the regular communique claimed, 220 more Red army tanks were put out of action by capture or destruction in two other battles.

Besides the old Latvian capital of Riga, which previously had been reported occupied, the Germans claimed Windau in Latvia also had been captured yesterday.

No Details Of Finland Battle

Still farther north on the German front pointed toward Leningrad, Russia's second largest city, the high command said Allied German-Finnish forces had launched attacks across the frontier into Russia from central and northern Finland. No details in this apparently developing battle were given, however.

Heavy losses through air attacks on Russian forces retreating eastward from Lwow, Minsk and into Estonia were claimed by the Nazi high command. On the Galician front, at the other end of the main thrust into Russia through the Bialystok-Minsk sector, it said Hungarian forces attacking through Carpathian mountain passes had "joined the German attack on schedule."

Smolensk Bombed Germans Say

Almost 200 miles beyond the White Russian capital of Minsk on the road to Moscow, the Germans claimed, the rail junction town of Smolensk was under heavy aerial bombardment.

To the south, between the Pinsk Marshes and the Carpathians, the German army, aided by Slovak forces, was following up a Russian retreat into the Ukraine, the high command claimed. It reported advances into the Soviet breadbasket by columns north and south of captured Lwow.

The high command claimed Nazi forces striking northeast through the Baltic states moved into Riga Monday after rushing in from Libau, 40 miles south-east, and crossing the Dvina River at many places from Riga Bay to Dvinsk.

Advance forces were said to have thrust on from the north bank of the river, while the air force hammered at the Russian town of Pskov and positions near Pelpus Lake, between Estonia and Russia. The Germans claimed the Reds were falling back to this area for another stand in defence of Leningrad.

In London authoritative sources

WHERE HUGE ARMIES LOCKED IN BATTLE—This map indicates the stages by which the Germans claim their army advanced. Contradicting much of their day's communique, however, the Russians say they wiped out enemy tank forces in the Dvinsk area northeast of Kaunas and east of Minsk and halted the drives aimed toward Moscow and Leningrad. The Nazis claim their advanced forces are almost 200 miles east of Minsk and that Smolensk is under aerial bombardment.

today said pockets of Russian troops, operating far behind German advance units and harrying Nazi communications, may achieve "valuable results" in the Red Army's attempt to check the advance on Moscow. The Russians are attacking the Germans from positions around Przemysl in the Latvia peninsula and around Bialystok, these sources said.

The German forward movement cannot be carried out successfully unless supplies flow freely and the advance units may be forced to release troops to round up the Russians, who are attacking at times more than 100 miles in the rear.

R.A.F. Shoots Down 17 Nazis Over France

LONDON (CP)—Seventeen German planes were destroyed by the Royal Air Force today in a series of daylight raids on northern France. Three of the enemy fighters were bagged by the American Eagle Squadron.

Strong forces smashed across the Channel late in the morning and squadrons of fighters and bombers still were streaking over northern France during the afternoon, following up a night attack in which British bombs straddled the dock of a German battleship at Brest.

The R.A.F. acknowledged that two bombers and seven fighters were lost in the daylight sweeps, the first large-scale offensive against occupied France in which the American Eagle Squadron had taken part.

Airfield Runways Heavily Bombed

An airdrome at Merville, near Lille, and a railway junction southeast of Lille were bombed by Birminghams guarded by a strong fighter escort. Bombs burst on runways and buildings and among dispersed aircraft.

"The attacks were pressed home in the face of heavy opposition from ground defences and a large number of enemy fighters were beaten off with heavy losses," it continued.

"Reports so far received show that 17 enemy aircraft were destroyed, of which 10 were shot down by our bombers."

Waves of planes, often so high they could only be heard, swept in and out over the coast and the distant rumble of explosions indicated that targets were well inland.

Bombs Fall Near Prinz Eugen

These recently were joined, according to reports, by a 10,000-ton Hipper Class cruiser, presumably the Prinz Eugen, which was heavily damaged in the sea battle in which her raiding partner, the 35,000-ton German battleship Bismarck, was sunk.

The Air Ministry statement that fighter command aircraft carried out the blasting of Nazi airdromes raised a question as to whether the R.A.F. is equipping its Spitfires and Hurricanes with bomb racks.

Of previous operations a communique said that on the night of June 30 an enemy fighter was shot down by a British bomber.

In addition, it was confirmed today that in an engagement between R.A.F. bombers and Nazi fighters off the German Flesland Islands in daylight Tuesday, a total of three enemy fighters were destroyed.

Receives Torch of Victory

LONDON (CP)—Pensions Minister Ian Mackenzie, above, yesterday presented to Prime Minister Churchill Canada's golden "Torch of Victory" in a brief Dominion Day ceremony in the little garden of No. 10 Downing Street.

Mr. Mackenzie presented the torch as a symbol of Canada's "unrelenting determination that never shall we flag—or fail—or falter in this conflict." The Prime Minister accepted it as an "impulse of the great effort Canada is making."

The minister made the presentation speech as Air Minister C. G. Power, sleepless since he took off on a flight from Canada Monday. High Commissioner Vincent Massey, Col. C. R. Scott of the Canadian Department of National Defence and Canadian Trade Commissioner Frederic Hudd looked on.

The torch was standing on the lawn when Mr. Churchill, accompanied by his secretary, Brendan Bracken, and carrying the inevitable cigar, approached from a ground floor door. Mr. Massey introduced the Canadians.

Mr. Churchill, in accepting the torch, said: "I am much affected by the kindness and messages you bring me and by the emblem which has been carried so far over land, through the air and over the sea."

"It is come here to present another impulse of the great effort Canada is making in all these months and years of storm."

3 Cheers for Mrs. Hisgrove; Donates Her Locks to Britain

NEW YORK — Mrs. William J. Hisgrove, housewife, of 482 River Road, Bogota, N.J., has been trying to do her bit for Great Britain ever since the war began.

A native of Scotland, she worked in a confidential capacity for the British Consulate until one of her two daughters got sick recently and required her presence at home.

Thereafter, Mrs. Hisgrove became very active in the Bogota chapter of the British War Relief Society.

She tried to donate some of her blood for Britain, but the doctors turned her down.

The other day, Mrs. Hisgrove remembered that when she had her hair bobbed in London 20 years ago, the hairdresser asked her to sell the cut-off hair to him and paid her the equivalent of about $30 for it.

So she called up a department store salon with which she dealt and told them she wanted to sell her hair—for Britain. The department store wasn't in the market, but referred her to Charles of the Ritz.

And today Mrs. Hisgrove was notified that Charles would buy her hair.

Mrs. Hisgrove says it's dark brown and comes down to her waist—she thinks it will weight about half a pound.

How much she'll get for it will depend on its quality and weight; but whatever she gets, she promises, would go straight to Britain.

The Native Daughters of B.C., Post No. 3, held their last social evening of the season at the home of Miss Ettie Neelands, Oak Bay Avenue. The evening was spent with sewing and knitting for the British Bundles and a bundle of finished articles was prepared to be turned in at the local headquarters. There will be a sewing meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Corbett, 1045 Deal Street; all members are asked to attend. The evening was brought to a close with the serving of delicious refreshments, the table being covered with a handmade lace cloth, centred with a bowl of marigolds. The sisters for the evening were Mrs. G. Wright, Mrs. C. Davies and Miss Marjorie Gillies.

Scrap the present costly and obsolete convoy system. Long-range bombing planes killed it years ago.

Why mass ships in an easy target for Hun subs and planes?

Dispatch our merchant ships singly, make the swine search for and find them before he can attack.

KATHLEEN NORRIS AND THE WAR

One of the many sad surprises which these unhappy times have brought us is the attitude of Kathleen Norris toward the question of aid for Britain in the United States.

Kathleen Norris of the sweetly sentimental novels—the high priestess of the happy home, and the united family—has definitely ranged herself on the side of the baby-killers, Hitler and Mussolini. She is evidently proud of the fact. She has herself photographed on all possible occasions with those who are doing their best to aid the monsters who have made shambles of so many happy homes, and have driven the world to an abyss of despair from which it seems it may never arise.

Mrs. Norris' excuse is that she does not love war. Do any of us? I wonder if she thinks we Canadian mothers, who see our sons give up their careers, and perhaps their lives to defeat these monsters, love war? That excuse will not work, Mrs. Norris. There is a hidden motive behind it all.

We note that this woman's husband, Mr. Charles G. Norris, who has proven himself a much abler thinker and writer, does not agree with his wife on this subject and is doing all in his power to aid the cause of freedom and truth.

Canadians have been consistent buyers of Mrs. Norris' novels, whatever some of us may have thought of them. In future, they may not be so popular. In England, her works have never had much vogue. Surely, that cannot be the reason for her very evident enmity.

Whatever be the reason, we shall know from now on how to estimate Kathleen Norris' sympathy.

THE NEW CHURCH

Referring to letter "Why and When," quoting Sir Richard Acland, perhaps you overlooked the purpose. This involved the prerequisites there mentioned—that these are not, as many suppose, a matter of good behavior, unless it results from acknowledging Christ as Creator, who alone can regenerate, when His word is accepted as the necessary instruction for a Christian, and to perform religious conduct. Otherwise, in spite of any contrary appearance (to use Sir Richard's term), rottenness develops as a matter of course, as an effect results from its cause.

PROTEST AGAINST POLITICIANS WHO ARE ASLEEP

Hon. R. L. Maitland, arriving by plane, getting a "bird's-eye view" of our vast Peace River country, goes on to Grande Prairie, Alberta, and over CFCP radio station, tells us people: "I have not the slightest hesitation in saying that the government must realize that its prosperity and its contribution to this province can never be realized until by road and by rail it becomes a part of British Columbia."

Since Mr. Maitland has been asleep for so long he cannot know that for many years members of his party such as his late Premier, members of the Legislative Assembly or nominees for same and still others of the party have repeatedly visited us with the promise of fulfillment of this same fact. But after their election or return to Victoria they have found every conceivable excuse to ignore our needs or their promises.

Now when our country is at war, trying to wipe out the great menace facing us and our government is using every available dollar and effort and we are doing till it hurts Mr. Maitland has the audacity to come into our midst and tell us we must have an outlet to the coast by road and rail.

Yes, we do need this outlet to the coast by road and rail more than any thing else to bring this block into its own, but at the present we people who have pioneered against the greatest odds and privation to make this great country what it is today, are too patriotic to put our great need into a mere political issue against the needs of our country and the contributing to the great cause of freedom we are today fighting for.

It would be better for the Peace River block, British Columbia and Canada as a whole if such politicians would drift off to sleep again till this great strife is over or even longer.

I sign as a pioneer who places freedom before politics.

RAUSCHNING

A paragraph in Tuesday's Times refers to Hermann Rauschning's first two books. It is worded in such a way as to give the impression that the three books mentioned are the only ones by this author.

Have you not heard of "The Redemption of Democracy," on the coming Atlantic empire, by this same author. The English title is "Beast From the Abyss." It was published this spring.

Willson Woodside, a few weeks ago in his column in the Toronto Saturday Night, referred to this book as one of the most important books that have been published since the war started.

I agree with him and think it is a book that every member of the English-speaking democracies should read as soon as possible.

I was sorry to see it omitted in the paragraph.

Uruguay Mob Riots Against Germans

TRINIDAD, Uruguay (AP)—Authorities called for the army to maintain order here yesterday after a mob had looted German and Italian stores and burned their merchandise in the streets.

They acted in retaliation for the shooting of anti-totalitarian students at an Italian Red Cross benefit in Durazno Sunday when a bystander was killed.

Police were unable to check the furious crowd they estimated at 1,500 persons and one merchant complained of $12,000 in losses.

Two regiments of soldiers were already guarding Durazno and guards were stationed at the offices of the Montevideo pro-Nazi newspaper Libertad.

Woman Pilot Home

NEW YORK (AP)—Fatigued from many sleepless hours, Jacqueline Cochran, first woman to pilot a bomber to Britain, arrived late yesterday at LaGuardia Field from Canada and announced herself at the government's disposal.

She had reached Canada earlier from Britain.

Conscription

FROM PRIME MINISTER MACKENZIE
King's addresses in Calgary and Vancouver and his less public but free discussions in Victoria there emerge:

1. Mr. King does not believe that the present situation either calls for conscription or demonstrates the failure of the voluntary enlistment plan.

2. If and when a phase of the war makes conscription indispensable to our war effort, the policy will not be imposed arbitrarily, but will at least be submitted to Parliament and more probably to the Canadian people in a general election because of the anti-conscription promises made by both political parties before and during the last election.

3. Opinion for conscription is found mostly in the cities, is strongest in army centres like Victoria and Calgary.

4. English-speaking rural Ontario is as much anti-conscription as French-speaking Quebec. Farmers, suffering from a labor shortage, say a man raising food for England is serving in a way just as essential as a man with a gun. Reflecting this Ontario opinion, Premier Hepburn has not come out for conscription.

4. Men called up for four months' training and now held for the duration of the war are transferring in increasing numbers for active service overseas. With more draftees being called and the one-month men recalled, it is not improbable that the flow of men into the active force will be adequate for the present phase of the defence department's manpower needs.

All Are Obligated

WHAT GOES FOR ONE SOLDIER OF democracy goes for all of them. The introduction to military life contained in the Soldier's Handbook, issued by the United States War Department, says:

"The American people of their own will, and through the men they have elected to represent them in Congress, have determined that the free institutions of this country will continue to exist. They have declared that, if necessary, we will defend our right to live in our own American way and continue to enjoy the benefits and privileges which are granted to the citizens of no other nation. It is upon you, and the many thousands of your comrades now in the military service, that our country has placed its confident faith that this defence will succeed should it ever be challenged."

With slightly different circumstances, since our men already are in the battle line in Britain, on the sea and in the air, every Canadian soldier subscribes to the same philosophy. It applies in its implication to the man at the lathe, the man swinging the hammer in the shipyard, the man on the assembly line, the man at his desk—to all who have faith in Canada, and in the justice of the democratic cause.

It Will Survive

LITTLE TIME NEED BE WASTED ON speculation as to what Hitler thinks he has accomplished by destroying considerably more than a thousand churches in Great Britain alone. Until the lull in the Luftwaffe's activities over the island fortress, churches, schools and hospitals appeared almost daily in the list of air raid victims.

We need not be surprised. Nazism is the avowed enemy of the spiritual. "A thinking man," said Carlyle, "is the worst enemy of the Prince of Darkness"; the school is the first institution to be enslaved wherever the Nazi goes. The hospital stands for that offete practice of mercy to the weak—so unworthy of the strong progressive Nazi. He does well to attack the school, the hospital, the church. If he does not destroy them, they will destroy him. In truth, however, they are beyond the reach of his bombs. The buildings may be destroyed but the spiritual realities of truth, mercy, freedom and faith are indestructible.

Thorn in Nazi Side

NO BETTER PROOF OF THE REAL spirit behind Nazism could be found than recent attacks on Switzerland in the Nazi press. Switzerland, that tiny Alpine Republic in Europe's heart, treasures its independence and its democracy. It has been most scrupulous in maintaining all the forms of traditional neutrality.

German officials and newspapers now launch attacks on Switzerland, charging "aloofness from the New Order in Europe" "without reason or provocation." "We do not understand what Switzerland wants, and why it wants to isolate itself." Behind these impatient comments runs the menacing "one day our patience will come to an end." If Switzerland wants to isolate itself from any "new order" in Europe, one might think that is Switzerland's right, whether Nazi minds understand the wish or not. To the Nazi mind there is no such right.

The plain truth is that as long as a free country remains in Europe's midst, flaunting its example of a free democratic life, it must make Nazi bullies fidgety. It is significant that of all the nations now lined up under the "new order," not one has joined by anything approaching a free decision.

Parallel

THOSE WHO SAY THERE IS NO PARALLEL between Napoleon's campaign of 1812 and Hitler's current invasion of Russia have not read Tolstoy's "War and Peace," regarded by many critics as the greatest novel ever written. In it Tolstoy presents both a history of the retreat from Moscow and a theory of history that is valid today.

Czar Alexander is writing to Napoleon, immediately after the French troops had crossed the line of the Niemen:

"I learned yesterday that in spite of the loyalty with which I have kept my engagements with your majesty, your troops have crossed the frontiers of Russia. . . ."

Napoleon, too, had manufactured an incident. He was so far the master of Europe, that 363,000 of the troops with which he crossed the Niemen and entered Russia, were Germans. He had no panzer divisions and no air force and he was caught by the long Russian winter. The Russians drew him into the heart of their country, to the doom of his hopes.

Russia's vastness still furnishes a parallel between the Russian campaign of Napoleon and Hitler's invasion. Hitler may take the Ukraine in a few weeks and occupy Moscow, but it cannot be assumed that this will mean a victory over Russia. He cannot occupy a part of that vast and varied country without contending with the whole. That is why, according to the announcement from London today, Britain has hastened to send to Russia complements of tank and air force technicians and strategists. Let us hope for a Tolstoyan summer.

It Costs to Serve

WILLIAM McCHESNEY MARTIN, President of the New York Stock Exchange, took a salary cut of $3,979 a month when he went into the army. That is the difference between his Wall Street salary and the $21 a month he will draw as a recruit. It is a spectacular sacrifice in terms of money, and thus it draws attention. But it is not greater sacrifice, perhaps it is not as great as the sacrifice which many other men are making who never drew down in a year the salary which Martin drew every month. Sacrifice is not measured in terms of money, and many others are giving up quite as much in terms of their dependents, their careers, and their lives as Martin. All credit to Martin, of course, for accepting willingly what has come to him. But it would be ungracious to stress Martin's sacrifice unduly, when it is no greater than that of almost every other man who joins the colors. All honor to every one of them!

A British Columbia farmer has inherited a fortune. Now he will be able to farm a few years more.

A biologist believes that man is more inconsistent than woman. But not, as is often pointed out, as consistently so.

A dietitian in Britain commends seaweed as a healthful article for food, combining, as it does, the several advantages of spinach with salt air.

Whatever was behind the flight of Rudolf Hess to Scotland, it has a psychological implication, the danger of indulging too much in what psychiatrists call "wishful thinking." This is the type of thinking that explains Hess' flight from Germany as a sign that all is not well within Nazi party circles and the Reich generally and that breakdown or revolution in Germany with consequent end of the war is near. Every one outside Germany would like to think that, but thinking so and acting as if it were a fact without further and good evidence would be reverting to the childish state of mind against which the old nursery rhyme warns: "If wishes were horses, then beggars might ride." Hess' flight may mean the beginning of the end of Nazi rule over Europe but the end may still be distant. Freeing the world from the Nazi threat may still call for long time, strenuous effort, however much one might wish it could be achieved easily and quickly.

HITLER MARCHES EAST

Louis Fischer in The Nation

So the Nazis have launched a declared war on the Soviet Union. Another negotiated peace has been disrupted by Adolf Hitler. In September, 1938, Chamberlain and Daladier, appeasers and noninterventionists, signed a negotiated peace with Hitler. Eleven months later their countries were at war with Germany. August 23, 1939, was Stalin's Munich; he negotiated a peace with Hitler at the expense of Poland and the Baltic states. Now Stalin is reaping the fruits of that appeasement. It was inevitable; critics of the post-Litvinoff policy always predicted it. There is no safety with Hitler. The only way is to destroy him.

I think America's part in the war shaped Russia's fate. The more aid America sent to England the more Hitler had to extract from Russia. That helps to explain why the Communists opposed aid to England. America's jerky progress toward belligerence convinced the Nazis that they could not win the war quickly. They had to prepare, instead, for a long contest with Britain and America. But the territory under Nazi control has never fed itself and cannot support a protracted war. Only the Soviet Union can furnish the required supplies. Hitler, however, wanted more than Russian materials. He wanted to be sure that Moscow would not cut him off in an hour of dire need. He wanted to be sure that if the war lasted a long time, and if Germany were weakened by it, Russia would not stab Germany in the back. To prevent this, Hitler has to break the Soviets militarily and deprive them of their key munitions and raw materials. Hitler's aim today is a Vichyified Russia, part occupied, part "free," working for him and maybe even fighting for him.

Bruce Hutchison

WHAT HE MEANS

AN INTELLIGENT gentleman has written me to answer the question recently posed here about conscription of wealth. Where I questioned whether you could conscript such wealth as cows and antique furniture and small men's homes, this informant replies that the thing is quite easy. What is meant by conscription of wealth, he says, is that the government should take over everything and redistribute it among everybody, keep what it can and tell each man what work he must do, at the same wage as his neighbor.

So it is all very simple after all, and well stated. What this gentleman means is Communism, in purest form. It is an arguable theory and has strong advocates, but it is not what most people mean when they talk about conscription of wealth. They don't know what they mean. They just say it over and over because the words have a sweet moral flavor. And if you suggest alternatively doubling or tripling of taxation, which would be much simpler than Communism and real conscription of wealth, they usually back away and suspect you of being a Communist.

GIVE US TITLES

NOW THAT Mr. Bennett, of Ottawa, has become Lord Bennett, of Calgary and London, the voice of nobility is raised once more in the land. Undoubtedly the Ottawa Journal speaks for a considerable body of people who expect to get a knighthood when it says that we should restore titles in Canada.

Obviously, our need of titles is very great. Far too many of our aged politicians are walking the streets without a title to hand their coat on—and some without coats either. Far too many of our larger campaign fund contributors are without honor in the land when surely, after their public services, they should be called "Sir" or "My Lord." When I think of all the money advanced by these self-denying fellows it makes my heart bleed that they have no House of Lords to go to and enjoy their well-earned ease.

There once was a better time, before the first World War. If a man became Premier of British Columbia he got a knighthood. If he built a large enough brewery and knew his way around in legislative circles, he was elevated to the nobility. That was before the modern nonsense of social equality got abroad. We had then a definite caste system, approved by law and patent, where our present castes, at best, are flimsy and have no legal recognition.

We should set up a group of men apart, with special privilege and honor, to rule over us and to supply the campaign funds. I can think of many Canadians worthy to enter this garden of the elect. I positively know a number who would give their eye teeth and a substantial part of their fortunes for a title, and the Canadian people would like to see them made happy. The people want some men they can really look up to.

WHEN MARLBORO GOES TO WAR

The voice of him of Oudenarde and Blenheim's glorious day Transmitted through 300 years, calls to a wider fray.

A soul inspires the radio and through a million stations That voice sounds like a trumpet call to rouse the sleeping nations. And not to this great age alone, for children still unborn Shall thrill to that arousing cry, those withering words of scorn.

Shall hear again the battle call of Freedom ringing far In ages when a wiser world shall know no more of war.

The Russian and American that rousing call have heard, No halting voice of past dissent the ringing cry has slurred.

It cries, "Unite! The present hour is like the rising sun And in its warmth our varying creeds are all dissolved in one. Alike, indeed, to them and us the native home is dear

Where each has known the welcome smile and sympathetic tear. For that we'll blast the foe with fire until the fight is won

And firm each nation's freedom stands upon the fallen Hun."

To Britain in her hour of need the leader comes to call, A George, a Churchill or a Pitt stands firm against the wall.

And one may flash the fire of Wales, one stand in English calm While from the Old World and the New one gets the striking arm.

Behind that arm the brain so skilled to guide both sword and pen

As one upraised of destiny to lead his fellow men,

Trained for a lifetime in the ranks, or councils of the state,

Another Lincoln rises like a messenger of Fate

To free the slaves, to strike the foe—no fear his soul can mar,

His path, the road to victory, when Marlboro goes to war.

—JAMES MORTON.

710 Rupert Street.

Elmore Philpott

CURSE OF CANADA

When I was very young everybody in this country used to share in some degree the sweeping optimism of Laurier's famous dictum: "The 19th century belonged to the United States; the 20th century belongs to Canada." Now, in the second year of the second world war, you would have to search all Canada with a fine-tooth comb to find one person who clung to Laurier's vision.

What is much more disconcerting is that there has been an appalling decline in national self-confidence as between the two wars. In the second year of World War I the Canadian Corps had already begun to forge on the anvil of struggle the idea that was as hard as the hardest steel when the war was over. The Canadians knew themselves to be the equals of any troops in the entire Allied battle line; they were certain that they were so superior to anything facing them from the other side that any Canadian division would have felt chagrined if it had not knocked out two or three enemy divisions in any real battle.

Post-mortems are never very interesting, except to doctors, and there is not much use now in analyzing all the reasons why the magnificent Canadian spirit of leadership, so vital in France, should have glimmered and died in the days of uneasy peace between the wars.

But if I were to contribute my guess as to the chief reason why Canada has so dismally failed, not only to reach the heights of Laurier's vision, but even to hold to the levels of World War I, it would be because of the chronic course of Canada's party politics.

PARTIZAN DISEASE

My old boss, John Dougall of the Montreal Witness, used to talk to me at length about what he considered a dangerous anomaly: That was that nowhere in the British Constitution, written or unwritten, was there any recognition of parties as such. Yet it was evident to anyone who took the trouble to examine the facts that the party mechanism was playing an ever-more important part in Parliamentary procedure, and in cabinet government. The effect in normal peace times, as well as in times of emergency, was to stifle open and above board discussion. Ordinarily, this procedure is perhaps defensible. But in times of acute crisis, such as the present, the party-gate system becomes, in my opinion, a dagger aimed at the very heart of freedom itself.

Let us forget Canada for a moment, and think of the Motherland. The difference in the morale of the British people now as compared with that of 14 months ago is almost unbelievable. Yet 14 months ago, none of Europe west of the Rhine was considered to be threatened by Germany. Today the vast majority of the people of Britain know that they are fighting with their backs to the wall and for their very national survival.

What was the thing which happened in that time which made possible the change? That the people themselves smashed the party system made it impossible for the British constitution to work as it should and does.

HITLER'S BEST FRIEND

The chief hope of the Nazis in this war is that the democracies will never be able to get together in time, with enough energy and unity to beat the aggressors—even though the human and material resources at the command of the democracies are far stronger than their enemies.

Nor does national unity mean

Business Women Urged to Help Make a New World

"We hear much about the new world that is to emerge from the welter of blood, destruction and human misery of today. We hear that class distinction, privilege and economic inequality have gone forever from the Old Country and that a new Socialist Britain will arise. I am no prophet, but I do know that such a world will not come without planning—and that must be parallel with our war effort—or the struggle will be in vain, regardless of the outcome. It is in this I believe our federation can make the greatest contribution, greater even than in the more obvious war activities. We are going to discuss our federation, how we can strengthen it so it will be of greater service to our own women, to the women of the world, and this means the cause of true freedom and democracy throughout the world."

TO TAKE STOCK

This challenging note was struck by Miss Margaret Clay, national president, in her address at the opening session this morning of the biennial convention of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. The president expressed the conviction that after eleven years of life, the federation needed to take stock of its aims, to ensure its purposes being in line with modern tendencies, and to ensure that it did not develop into another war service auxiliary.

Greetings were tendered the 100 or so delegates gathered at the Empress Hotel by Miss Clay and Mrs. Madge Hall, convention convener, after Rev. J. L. W. McLean, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, had led the opening devotional exercises. Two new clubs, Melfort in Saskatchewan and Shawinigan Falls in Quebec, were welcomed into federation this year, Miss M. Ethel Thornton of Winnipeg noted in her report as secretary. Tentative steps had also been taken to organize a club at Sydney, P.E.I., while a group of 25 girls at Wolfville, N.S., had joined the Halifax Club for war work and would perhaps eventually come into federation.

PRESENTED AMBULANCE

Concerning the war work of the federation, Miss Thornton recalled the $1,750 raised for the purchase of an ambulance sent overseas in response to an S.O.S. from the Canadian Red Cross, and also told of the investment of $1,500 in war loans by the federation.

The appeal made by Miss Caroline Haslett of the British federation for gifts of musical instruments for the men of the services met with splendid response. Miss Thornton continued, and a large quantity of harmonicas, and every other sort of instrument had been sent overseas. The clubs have also sent many gifts of clothing to the bombed-out areas, donations of money to the Lord Mayor's fund, Red Cross, L.O.E. and the individual clubs have assisted with the entertainment of men on service in their various centres.

Reference was also made to the regional conferences held during the year in British Columbia, Alberta, Quebec and Ontario. The federation has also undertaken the maintenance of a plot in the International Peace Garden, and there is a possibility that the U.S. federation will also take over a plot.

REFUGEE PROBLEM

Dealing with the refugee question, Miss Thornton reported that at board meetings in Winnipeg the several opinions were summed up in the following resolution:

"That while we have every sympathy for these refugees, we are of the opinion that the fundamental need is not so much financial assistance as help to adjust themselves emotionally to environment. Towards this end, financial assistance should be gradually decreased while at the same time they be dealt with firmly, scientifically and persistently towards the end that they emerge as unified, self-supporting and self-respecting personalities, and further, we feel there is a general principle involved, applicable to all adult refugees who come to this country, that continued financial support may only aggravate the problem, unless, in addition, psychiatric case work is done with each individual."

Miss Della Jones of Calgary presented the financial statement, showing a balance on hand at April 30 of $2,064.44.

DELEGATES WELCOMED

About 100 delegates arrived yesterday from all parts of Canada, as well as the United States, and were cordially welcomed by the committee, whose personnel included: Miss Margaret Clay, national president; Mrs. Madge Hall, chairman of the convention committee; Mrs. Kate Farquharson, president of the local club and chairman of the reception committee in conjunction with Mrs. Harold Lord; Miss Mabel Cameron, in charge of transportation; Miss Edith Parsell, finance; Miss Nona Rich, decorations; Mrs. M. Bartholomew, hospitalities; Miss Bessie Crowther, advertising; Mrs. H. P. Hodges and Miss Lillian Parfitt, publicity and entertainment; Miss A. A. Lacey, refreshments, and Mrs. Frank Paterson, registration.

Miss Clay was hostess to the national executive and members of the local committee at dinner, after which a board meeting was held followed by an informal reception in the lower lounge. An informal musical program arranged by the Misses Bessie Crowther and Lillian Parfitt of the local club was much enjoyed.

from overseas of previous shipments of cake, tea, coffee, sugar, paper, chocolate bars, candies, gum and cigarettes. Total shipments per month amount to over 100 pounds. A further shipment of knitted articles will be sent overseas by the end of July, Mrs. W. Webb being in charge of overseas parcels, assisted by Mrs. P. Belson and Mrs. C. P. Smith. Three gross of handkerchiefs are also complete for shipment, a donation from a member.

Afterwards a contest was won by a team headed by Mrs. A. V. Simpson and refreshments were in charge of Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Haskens.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Engineers will meet on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. R. V. C. Bessonet, 649 Admirals Road, Esquimalt.

$3,900 Given By Junior League To Solarium

The Junior League of the Queen Alexandra Solarium presented that institution's board of directors with cheques totalling $3,891.87 for the purchase of special equipment at their annual meeting held Monday evening in Spencer's tearoom. The president, Mrs. R. D. McCullough, was in the chair, with about 40 members present. Preceding the meeting, a dinner was held in the dining-room honoring the board of directors.

Election of officers followed the business meeting, successful candidates being: Miss Barbara Kennedy, president; Mrs. P. H. Brown, vice-president; Mrs. A. C. Bradford, treasurer; Mrs. Andrew Pitkethly, corresponding secretary; Miss Patricia Pennock, recording secretary.

In the financial report, read by the treasurer, Mrs. Frank Waring, $1,000 of the handsome donation was allotted toward the purchase of a new ambulance, $500 towards completion of a fund set aside last year for construction of physiotherapy pool, $310 for a chronaximeter, chronowave and ultra short wave machine to provide a better-equipped and more efficient physiotherapy department, $500 for maintenance of two cots, $465 for a special sterilizer and $100 for tonsillectomy apparatus.

ACTIVE YEAR

A review of the activities undertaken to raise funds, read by the secretary, Miss Vivien Pennock, revealed a most active and enterprising year. Foremost project was the April shower of dimes which brought responses from all parts of B.C. and other provinces as far east as Truro, N.S., netting $575.

Also undertaken was a rummage sale, "Farmerette Box Social," chrysanthemum show and flower auction, bridge tea at Government House, tag day, garden party at the home of Mrs. Curtis Sampson, member of the board of directors, sponsorship of an organ recital by Paul Michelin, placing of "penny boxes" in the city stores and hat-checking at the Royal Victoria Theatre shows. A Christmas party was arranged for inmates of the Solarium, the League decorating the wards and presenting gifts to the children.

As a contribution to war activities, members have been knitting wool squares to be made into afghans, and have now completed, ready for shipment overseas, two of the rugs.

Mrs. McCullough thanked members of the organization for their co-operation in making this third year of the Solarium Junior League so successful, and expressed her appreciation for assistance rendered by the Victoria Times, Daily Colonist, radio station CFCT, the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, trustees of the Pemberton Estate for allowing the use of the building for meetings; Miss Florence Russell, secretary; Miss Dorothy Andrew, matron; Dr. Glen Simpson, superintendent of the Solarium; and P. R. Brown for assisting with poster work.

IMPORTANT ADJUNCT

On behalf of the board of directors, Dr. J. D. Hunter, past president of the board, speaking in place of E. W. McMullin, present president, who was unavoidably absent, thanked the auxiliary for "their wonderful financial aid, without which the Solarium could not function. It takes $5,000 a month, $60,000 a year, to run the Solarium. Twenty thousand of this is obtained from municipal and government grants. The rest must be solicited. You have helped enormously in this great responsibility, and it is truly remarkable that a two-year-old organization could become such an important adjunct to the institution."

Presentation of a gold Initialed compact was made by members to the retiring president, Mrs. McCullough. She was also presented with a corsage bouquet of gardenias and roses by the board of directors.

Other executives of the Solarium attending were: Dr. Glen Simpson, superintendent; Mrs. D. J. Murgford, president of the Senior W.A.; Mr. E. E. Henderson, chairman of the finance board; Mrs. Curtis Sampson and Mr. Charles Williams, honorary secretary-treasurer.

Britannia L.O.B.A. No. 216 held a successful garden party recently at the home of Mrs. R. McVie, Lyall Street. Mrs. Fea, Worthy Mistress, opened the affair and was presented with a gift by Mrs. Sadler, the convener. There will be church parade this Sunday at the evening service of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Members are asked to meet at the Orange Hall at 6.45 p.m. Final meeting of the lodge for the summer will be held July 8 at 7.30 and will be followed by a social evening.

BLAY—GILL

Of interest to Victorians, and residents of Vancouver Island was the ceremony last evening at 8 at St. Matthias Church when Rev. J. Blewett united in marriage Pauline Lorraine Gill, elder daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in her wedding gown of heavy white satin, fashioned on Princess lines, with the bodice of self-material extended down the back of the gown from the neckline to the waistline. The full gored skirt, with insertions of lace, was elongated into a sweeping train and the long sleeves of the bodice featured painting at the wrists. Over her wedding gown, her floor length veil of illusion veiling was held on her head with a wreath of orange blossoms, and to complete her bridal attire she carried a shower bouquet of pale pink Ophelia rose buds and pink carnations.

War Activities Feature Economics Convention

The Canadian Home Economics Association opened its convention here today at the Empress Hotel with war activities as its principal theme. The canteen will be presented through Lady Bessborough, president of the Canadian Women's Club in Great Britain.

Supper was served from a table covered with a green damask cloth, centred with a pink wedding cake, vases of pink and variegated snapdragons decorating the room. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Cullum and Mrs. W. E. J. Elkins, and assisted in serving were Mrs. L. Johnston, Miss Dare Nixon, Miss Molly Scott and Miss Nora Garcin.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. S. W. Morrison of Nanaimo. The bride and groom left for a motor trip up the island, and will later make their home in Duncan. For traveling the bride donned a copper penny and beige redingote ensemble, with beige hat and other accessories in the same shade, while her corsage bouquet was of bronze gerbera.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Nixon and Miss Dare Nixon, Dr. and Mrs. Margeson and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cunliffe, all of Nanaimo; Mrs. W. J. ## Says Churchwomen Challenged By War

The responsibility devolving upon churchwomen to maintain their efforts on behalf of missions at home and abroad during these critical days was emphasized by Mrs. R. E. Wodehouse, Dominion president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, at a gathering in St. Mary's Hall on Monday evening. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Columbia Diocesan W.A. board, and Bishop Sexton presided.

After thanking the women of the Columbia diocese for their splendid work in the past, she spoke of the new demands to be faced by the church and state if a worthwhile peace is to be achieved. The war was bringing men and women to a realization of the things that matter, the eternal verities, she said, paying warm tribute to the women of Britain who had risen so magnificently to the occasion and set an example worthy of emulation the world over.

AMONG CHILDREN

Touching upon the immediate field for W.A. work, Mrs. Wodehouse pointed to the need to enlist all churchwomen in the ranks of the W.A., to work on a program which embraced worship, study, service and gifts. Greater emphasis might be placed upon the work among children, such as the Sunday-school; post, and the training of children along Christian lines. Although the Dominion government supplied grants for the Indian work in this country, the W.A. spends between $80,000 and $90,000 annually in providing clothing, she said.

Reference was also made to the foreign mission field. Mrs. Wodehouse noted that the work of the hospitals maintained by the W.A. in China was being maintained with much success. Mission workers, who had been withdrawn from foreign fields to Canada were being absorbed in work throughout the Dominion.

Ven. A. E. de L. Nunnis supplemented Bishop Sexton's warm welcome to Mrs. Wodehouse, who, at the close of her address, was presented with a bouquet of carnations by Mrs. A. A. Benrough, on behalf of the W.A. Mrs. F. J. Brimer, diocesan president, also thanked the speaker. Mrs. H. C. Corbett provided a musical interlude in her two vocal solos.

Anti-Soviet Russian

CHARLES A. LINDBERGH told an anti-war mass meeting in San Francisco "I would a hundred times rather see my country ally herself with England, or even with Germany with all her faults, than with the cruelty, the godlessness, and the barbarism that exist in Soviet Russia."

Canada Proud of Growing Strength Prime Minister Tells Servicemen

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King said that yesterday was the "most impressive" Dominion Day he had ever spent.

In his one day visit here the Prime Minister inspected units of the three services and said it was a magnificent demonstration of what Canada is and would be in time to come.

"To see this growing strength should make all Canadians profoundly proud," Mr. King told the men of H.M.C.S. Naden, Esquimalt barracks.

The Prime Minister arrived on the night boat from Vancouver and had breakfast at the Empress Hotel with R. W. Mayhew, M.P.

The first formal occasion was inspection of an R.C.A.F. guard of honor drawn up on the hotel lawn. The Air Force band played the opening bars of O Canada as the Prime Minister stepped from the hotel, accompanied by Major-General R. O. Alexander, G.O.C.-in-chief, Pacific defence command; Commodore W. J. R. Beech, commanding officer, Pacific Coast R.C.N.; Mr. Mayhew and G. McGeer, M.P.

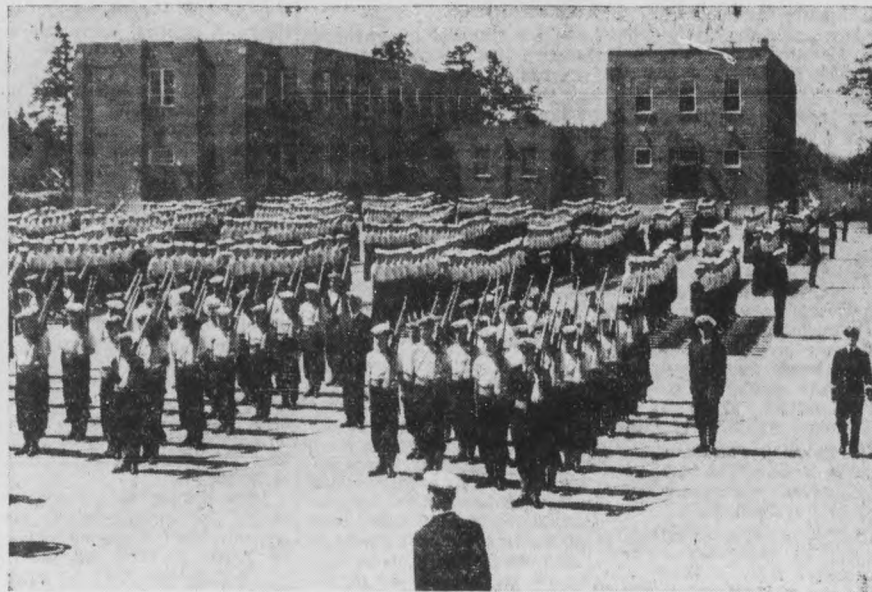

The Prime Minister shook hands with air force officers of the guard and then stepped into a waiting car to be driven to H.M.C.S. Naden for morning divisions under Capt. W. B. L. Holmes. Prayers were offered by Rev. A. Bischoffberger and Rev. Father A. B. Wood, navy chaplains.

In his address to the sailors drawn up on the drill square, the Prime Minister declared that every man must realize what he was fighting for.

The country, he said, was profoundly grateful to the men who had offered their services voluntarily in the defence of freedom. It was impossible to put into words what it meant to the future of mankind.

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

"We are fighting for freedom in all its aspects," he said. "It is not just the freedom to move about in our accustomed manner. It is the freedom to speak our minds on the things which touch us deeply. The freedom to live in our homes, to make our own laws, the freedom to share in worship, as we have this morning. These are the things Nazi Germany is trying to wipe out.

After witnessing morning divisions at H.M.C.S. Naden yesterday, Prime Minister Mackenzie King said it was a demonstration of Canada's growing strength.

Accompanied by the defence heads the Prime Minister spent an hour touring the barracks. He visited the men's quarters, the cookhouse and the gunnery building.

SEES OFFICERS TRAINING

His next visit was to the naval officers' training centre, H.M.C.S. Royal Roads, where he was welcomed by Commander J. M. Grant and shook hands with the instructional staff.

After a march past the Prime Minister addressed the officers, telling them he was proud to share Dominion Day with them.

He said that being at the training establishment took his thoughts back to 1908 and 1909, when the Laurier cabinet had planned the beginnings of the naval service. Fleet units on both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts were projected, and the first decision was to build smaller units like destroyers, rather than go in for dreadnoughts.

When the time came to award contracts it was the eve of an election and Sir Wilfrid, believing a public might think the contracts had something to do with the election, had deferred the call. The government was defeated in the election, and the plans did not materialize.

"Now," he said, "I have the privilege of seeing realized the vision of that time. The war, of course, has been a big determining factor, but I think all of us here can realize the developments of our services in the last year have surpassed the expectations of everyone."

PROUD OF NAVY

He said the administration was truly proud of the achievements of the naval service and he felt he could speak in this light for the people as a whole. Off the French coast, in the English Channel, on convoy and in protecting Canada's coasts they had done a job for which the Empire was grateful.

"As I look into the faces of young men training as naval officers I see a vision of the country's future," he said. "For it is the men who sail the ocean, supported by our army and airmen, who will keep us free for all time. And our job is not only to keep our own freedom but to restore the freedom of those who have lost it. This is a time of trial and tribulation, but history shows that the periods which seem darkest are often followed by a brighter dawn."

NEW WORLD AFTERWARDS

The Prime Minister said that out of the struggle would come a new sense of human brotherhood. Those who were playing their part now were doing a noble work. "I have to keep reminding myself," he said, "that this is a struggle on a vaster scale than anything mankind has hitherto known. You men are not only the defenders of your country but the defenders of everything we regard as sacred."

Mr. King was shown around the converted castle to the various quarters and took a short walk in the gardens before leaving for Work Point to attend a luncheon given by General Alexander.

Russian - German War

No Panic Expected If Moscow Attacked

By WADE WERNER

NEW YORK (AP)—Now that Hitler has launched Germany on the great gamble that wrecked Napoleon—an invasion of Russia—what will happen in Moscow if his troops enter the city which his predecessor also entered only to see it go up in smoke?

Will the Russians again burn Moscow to frustrate a would-be conqueror? Will a conqueror this time, too, find his victorious armies stranded in the midst of a Russian winter?

When Napoleon crossed the Niemen River in 1812 at the beginning of his gamble it was June 24. Hitler's troops entered Soviet territory June 22.

Napoleon's soldiers entered Moscow September 24. They had to walk, and Hitler's men move on wings and wheels; but it is not yet apparent he will beat Napoleon's schedule. That, of course, depends largely on the effectiveness of the Red Army.

But supposing German troops actually arrive at the gates of the Soviet capital about August 1? What will happen then?

MOSCOW CROWDED

It can be assumed most of Moscow's population will remain on the job as long as possible. Moscow is the capital, crowded with the many officers of a vast bureaucracy, and many important factories—including one of the biggest Soviet automobile plants—are there or nearby.

This, of course, is a far different war from the war of Napoleon's day. It is possible Moscow might be laid in ruins by Nazi bombing squadrons long before any armored columns could penetrate within 100 miles of the city. Moscow's people, however, are no strangers to hardship and danger. They have seen civil strife and famine and endured the nerve-grating strain of successive political purges in which high and low were liquidated and no man could feel exempt from the peril of death or imprisonment or exile.

It would be most astonishing if these stolid inhabitants of Moscow, with their background of endurance through war, revolution, civil war and famine, suddenly should mill around in panic under the stress of this new war. If the government should decide to evacuate Moscow, or at least evacuate most of its civilian inhabitants, it is safe to assume they would trudge away in the assigned direction with little more excitement than if they were parading on a big day of ceremony.

If, under air bombardment, they do not put up as brave a show, in their own way, as the inhabitants of Indomitable London, they will certainly surprise many foreigners who have lived in their city at one time or another.

Many years ago Soviet leaders

City Enjoyed Quiet Holiday

Quietly and pleasantly Victorians yesterday celebrated their country's 74th birthday.

The weather was perfect, with a brilliant sun shining all day in blue skies flecked with white clouds. A soft breeze from the ocean kept down the heat.

Early in the morning the highways out of the city were thronged with cars, bearing thousands of citizens to parks and beaches. There were picnics galore and hundreds went for their first swim of the season.

Beacon Hill Park was a popular spot. By 9 in the morning people were sitting on benches in the sunshine, reading newspapers and magazines. Mothers and fathers took their youngsters for picnic lunches under the trees; old couples, with their lunches in paper bags, sat in the shade. Old-timers played outdoor checkers.

Shortly after 8 in the morning crowds flocked across the Causeway and boarded Ss. Princess Alice for an excursion trip to Vancouver. In all 785 persons made the trip. Shortly after 1 in the afternoon Ss. Princess Adelaide arrived from Vancouver with 750 excursionists.

The visitors from Vancouver brought cameras and took numerous pictures; by mid-afternoon many of the travelers were tired, so, informally, they sat beneath trees on the Parliament Buildings lawns, some removing their shoes.

The streets were gay most of the day with sailors, soldiers and airmen enjoying the holiday. In the evening traffic in the centre portion of the city was unusually heavy, as cars made their way back to town from the country.

There will not be another holiday now until Labor Day, the first Monday of September.

Few Mishaps Mar Holiday

By the Canadian Press
Canadian holidaygoers got back to usual business routine today after Dominion Day celebrations. It was the second wartime Dominion Day of the second Great War.

Vacationers were blessed with fine weather throughout Canada, except in parts of New Brunswick, where showers curtailed activities. The hot-spot of Canada was at Hamilton, where the mercury climbed to 96 degrees. Kamloops, B.C., registered the highest temperature in the west with a reading of 84.

The number of violent deaths, compared with those of other years, was exceptionally small everywhere. Only 11 were reported, five in Quebec, four in Ontario and two in British Columbia.

The first B.C. death occurred in Victoria when Arthur Ault, 17 years, was drowned while swimming at Esquimalt Lagoon. Mrs. Alice Wills, about 30, was drowned last night when she slipped from a rock into St. Mary's River near Cranbrook and was swept away by the swollen stream. The body has not been recovered. Mrs. Wills, who lived at Kimberley, was on a Dominion Day picnic with a party including her brother, Bill Kenneman of Kimberley.

Pte. Stanley Milan, 19, Calgary, member of a western Canada regiment, was drowned at Niagara Falls, Ont., in a swimming pool. Police said Milan had an abrasion on his forehead. No inquest will be held.

At Sorel, Que., the first 25-pound field gun, with its carriage, to be produced in Canada was formally dedicated to the country by Justice Minister Lapointe.

Pressure of business kept small staffs at their desks at the army, navy and air headquarters at Ottawa and war industries plants operated at full speed.

Cold Storage Order Changed

Prime Minister Watches Three Forces in Training at Only Place in Canada Where This Is Possible

The Royal Canadian Air Force provided the guard of honor for Prime Minister King on his arrival at the Empress Hotel yesterday morning for an inspection of the three services in this area. Mr. King is shown, above, walking between the ranks, accompanied by Flight-Lieut. C. G. W. Chapman, who was in charge of the guard. In the right picture Mr. King is shown on the reviewing stand at H.M.C.S. Naden. Left to right, Commodore W. J. R. Beech, officer commanding Pacific Division, R.C.N.; Mr. King, Capt. W. B. L. Holms, officer commanding H.M.C.S. Naden, and Major-General R. O. Alexander, G.O.C.-in-chief, Pacific Defence Command.

The Prime Minister shows keen interest at the Gordon Head training camp in a Bren gun manned by a soldier in helmet and gas mask. General Alexander and Lieut.-Col. A. D. Wilson, D.S.O., look over his shoulder.

BRITISH CHILDREN AT WORK—These little folk, evacuated from their homes to Finmore camp school, take pride in industriously knitting for men on a British destroyer. They typify young Britain for whom women of Canada are working.

ENGLAND LEARNS ABOUT EMBLEMS—Canadian soldiers visiting England are fascinated by many English emblems. These English lads return the compliment, and Sgt. E. G. Turner of Toronto holds their attention with an explanation of the origin of emblem on his steel helmet.

At H.M.C.S. Royal Roads, sub-lieutenants in training at the former Hatley Park estate, stand smartly to attention for the Prime Minister.

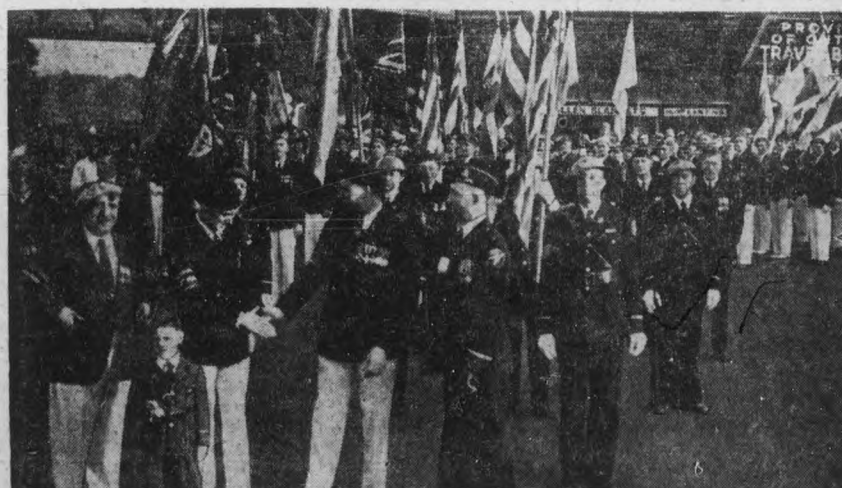

The Prime Minister inspected the fine new hospital at Work Point Barracks and is shown here shaking hands with Major R. Scott-Moncrieff of Victoria, a member of the staff of the Canadian Army Medical Corps at Work Point, who is undergoing treatment for a hand infection.

By PETE SALLAWAY

VICTORIA box lacrosse fans will be forced to give Ted Menzies and his James Bay club a little credit now. Saturday night the undefeated leaders of the local league stepped right out of their class and literally kicked the pants off Grumpy Spring and his famous New Westminster Salmonbellies. And don't ever think the Bays were not full value for their win. On the night's play the local boys were much the better. They deserve a pat on the back.

Some of Victoria's fans are hard to understand. On Saturday night we heard a goodly number of the crowd shouting for the Salmonbellies. Time after time they were calling on the visiting players to cut down one of the Bays or throw one of the locals into the boards. Such talk from home town people is difficult to understand. Can you imagine a New Westminster or Vancouver crowd hollering for a Victoria team? We never have had such an experience in 15 years of attending intercity sports engagements on the island. As much as one may dislike teams from across the gulf you must give their fans credit for getting behind them in competition against outsiders. They are home town first and last.

We can understand the unpopularity of the Bays as far as the local league is concerned. After all, they are top dogs with an unbeaten record this season. Everybody pulls for one of the other clubs to knock them off. But we can't see what satisfaction any fan could get out of seeing them lose to a team from another town. After all, the Bays are all Victoria boys and why shouldn't they have the support of the people in their own town?

The Bays whipped the Salmonbellies on the strength of better team play. Practically every goal the local club scored came as the result of some fine team play. The Salmonbellies featured individual effort all evening. Pete Meehan, Harry Carter, Bill Wilkes and Rene Leatherbarrow showed a lot of nice shooting, stickhandling and passing but there was a lack of combined effort. And nothing can be taken away from the Bays through the argument the fishermen had a weakened club. Only important player missing from the line-up was Ed Downey and he wouldn't have made the difference between defeat and victory.

Saturday's crowd was good evidence that box lacrosse has not lost its attraction for the fans, providing they are given good competition. If the Bays or the league are up on their toes they will get busy and attempt to bring over Richmond Farmers for a Saturday night appearance. The Farmers appear to be the class of the Intercity League, having dropped only one game to date. A game between the Bays and Richmond would prove the prize tid-bit of the season and we will guarantee the Sports Centre would present another packed appearance.

Sudden death last week of Harry (Happy) Holmes, former goalie for the Victoria Cougars hockey team, removed another from the chain that binds this city with hockey glory of the past. Holmes was one of the greatest favorites to ever play with Victoria. One of the coolest goalkeepers we have ever had the pleasure to watch. He occupied a position with the greats of the sport. Remember those battles at the old Willows Arena between Victoria and Vancouver, with Holmes in one net and the colorful Hughie Lehman in the other. Never a spectacular performer like Lehman, Holmes was just as great in his own quiet way.

Teams Announced

Teams to represent the National and American Baseball Leagues in annual all-star game at Detroit, on July 8 were announced yesterday. As usual it will be a case of American League power against National League pitching.

Del Baker of Detroit's American League champions will manage the junior circuit squad.

Two of its biggest guns will be Boston's Ted Williams, who through June 29 held at 404 batting mark, and New York's Joe DiMaggio, who has been hitting a record pace.

Following is the American League squad:

Pitchers — Bob Feller, Cleveland; Edgar Smith and Thornton Lee, Chicago; Alton Benton, Detroit; Sid Hudson, Washington; Charley Ruffing and Marius Russo, New York.

Catchers — Bill Dickey, New York; Frank Hayes, Philadelphia; George Tebbets, Detroit.

SATURDAY TEAM CAPTURES MATCH

Putting on 181 runs for six wickets the Saturday League defeated the Wednesday League representatives in their holiday cricket match yesterday. The mid-weekers scored 157 for nine wickets declared.

Highlight of the winners' score was Clark's 75. He was ably supported by Crehan with 37 and Martin with 30. Baker of the Wednesday League put up 60 not out on the board, which included eight boundary hits. Turner was next high with 32.

The bowling side of the picture saw Opie, young schoolboy from Ontario, performing for the Saturday team, take three wickets for 27 runs. Gandossi of the Wednesday captured two wickets for 25 runs.

One Big Happy Family

Here's a lot of German Shepherd pups, just about twice the usual litter, and Bessie, the four-year-old mother, has to keep a close check on her 14 sons and daughters.

Trap Champion

JOHNNY WENGER

VANCOUVER (CP) — Led by John Wenger, who won the B.C. singles championship and the A. L. Hager Cup, Victoria marksmen dominated a field of 60 expert trapshooters at the British Columbia championships held at Vancouver Gun Club yesterday.

Wenger defeated defending champion Dr. Leonard of Trail by five points with a score of 97 out of possible 100.

In the class B singles another Victorian, Wallace McMillan, was high man with 89 points. Ernie Todd, Victoria, broke 44 out of 50 to win the doubles competition in A class division, while S. Torrick, Nanaimo, won the B class division with 45 out of possible 50.

W. McMillan, Victoria, won the all-around B class with 160 points. Victoria won the team shoot with the exceptionally high score of 120 out of 125 after a shoot-off with Nanaimo when both teams tied with 118.

Vancouver Wins Cricket Match

VANCOUVER (CP) — In the first of the annual home-and-home intercity cricket series, at Brockton Point yesterday, Vancouver battled first and scored 229 runs and then dismissed Victoria for a total of 52 to win by a margin of 177 runs. Second game will be played in Victoria on Labor Day, with the Flummerfelt Cup at stake.

Bud O'Hara led the Vancouver batsmen with a score of 62, made by free hitting all round the wicket. He received good support from Gordon Dickson, Robin Johnson, Alfie Martin and Stan Hansen, each of these five being youngsters who have only been playing senior cricket in the past two or three years.

Reg Wenman bowled for Victoria throughout the innings. Wenman sent down 26 overs and took six wickets, but they cost him 103 runs.

When Wenman was dismissed quickly, the Victoria side went to pieces. They had six wickets down for less than 20 runs, and but for a short stand by Alastair Gillespie and N. Smith would have fared even worse. Ed Ball, Bill Clarke and Billy Dickson all took wickets at a ridiculously low cost.

Revolver Shoot Opens

B.C. Police Star

The annual two-day shoot of the Victoria City Police Revolver Club opened yesterday at the Thetis Lake range with crack shots, men and women, from parts of California, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia taking part.

Firing commenced at 9 in the morning and continued until after 4 with a large crowd of spectators on hand at all times. Sixteen events were run off. Nine more were scheduled for today.

The shoot will wind up this evening with a prize giving and dance at the city police station.

Tops in the police team event yesterday were two groups of crack shots from the British Columbia police. The first team scored 1,286 and the second 1,196. The winning team was composed of C. Clark, J. Young, W. Conlan, J. A. Henry and W. G. Bailey. The second-place team consisted of R. Marshall, P. Kelsberg, N. J. Parsley, J. Gibault and C. Cryden.

The army beat the navy in the team event for the services. The army team composed of Lieut. J. F. Dick, Sergt. Reg. Lanning, Corp. E. Sturrock, Corp. W. Andrews and Corp. Fairholm, scored 975. The navy's score was 917. The sailor shooters were: A. P. M. Clayards, Lieut. Rankin, Lieut. Ostler, W. O. Betts and Shipwright Nichol.

Constable Jack Mason won the event for members of the Victoria City Police with scores of 88, 86 and 82 for a total of 256. Constable Charlie Webb was second, with 88, 87 and 72 (247). Constable John Lund was third with 71, 85 and 78 (234).

Mrs. G. Bowes won the women's B.C. championship with scores of 60 and 89 for a total of 149. Mrs. G. S. Hethey was second with 71 and 72 for a total of 143.

Holiday Baseball

Victoria Wins Two

In two of the snappiest ball games seen here for some time Victoria All-Stars registered a pair of victories over Vancouver Patriotics 3 to 0 and 7 to 5 before large holiday crowds yesterday.

Both clubs turned in smart exhibitions with only four errors being seen during the 18 innings. Victoria's margin of victory in each case was in the stout right arms of Stan Davies and Tommy Musgrave, local hurlers. The pair of right-handers had the mainlanders under control and turned in mound performances deserving of praise.

This was particularly true of Davies who went to the mound in the morning tilt. The big blond-thatched lad gave up three hits and struck out seven. Al Moser worked for Vancouver and except for the fourth inning, when the locals scored in their three runs was seldom in trouble. After Vancouver had loaded the sacks in the second inning and failed to score, Victoria stepped out in the fourth to sew up the decision. Reg Patterson opened the rally with a single over shortstop. On the hit-and-run play Ray Casey doubled through third base and both runners scored on Charlie Strouglor's line double to left field. Strouglor crossed the plate when Jack Stratton poked a single over second base.

Vancouver threatened with two successive singles in the ninth with one away but the locals sent the fans home happy with a double play, Murray to Barnswell to Strouglor.

HIT IN PINCHES

Punching out hits when they most counted Victoria made it two straight in the afternoon clash. Locals put up a 3 to 0 lead in the first two innings only to have Patricia tie it up in the third. Each team registered a pair of runs in the fourth with Victoria adding singles in the seventh and eighth to win.

Reeve L. H. Passmore of Saanich won an event for mayors, Reeves and police commissioners. His score was 62. Commissioner Jim Day, also of Saanich, was second with 42.

Alderman Burgess J. Gadsden of the city was first in an event for aldermen and councillors with a score of 56. Alderman John Worthington of the city was second with 36.

Constable Norman Galbraith was tops with 83 in an event for novice city policemen. Constable Bill Elliott was next in line with 83, and S. Cornish third with 77. Joe Kelly was fourth with 76.

CITY CHIEF WINS

Chief John A. McLellan of the city police department beat Chief Hugh Reston of Oak Bay in an event for police chiefs. The Victoria chief won with 88, while Chief Reston had 85.

An event for police inspectors of B.C. was won by Inspector C. Clark of the provincial police with a score of 93. Inspector Jack Rogers of the city department was second with 89.

J.B.A.A. Crews Beat Vancouver

Beneath blue skies and a hot summer sun the James Bay Athletic Association held its Dominion Day intercity regatta at the Gorge yesterday.

The City of Victoria Trophy was won by W. MacDonald and E. Simmons of the Bays in a two-and-a-half-mile event which started in the Inner Harbor and finished at the Gorge. The through-Victoria fours race was another victory for the sturdy "J" boys. With B. Waller as coxswain, the crew of L. Bland, Norm Edmonds, A. Bland and D. Mowat passed the finish line a good four lengths ahead of the Vancouver crew. The Victoria boys displayed smoother action throughout the entire event with their slower time of 28 strokes to the minute, while Vancouver, in more splashy action, was doing on the average of 34. From the start the J.B.A.A. had the margin.

At Point Ellice Bridge the home crew was a good two lengths in the lead, and between there and the C.N.R. crossing they managed to gain still another length. Vancouver's team was composed of Bain, Bigg, Bennett and Rush.

The J.B.A.A. oarsmen also scored a victory in the four-oared three-quarter-mile event. This was a closer finish, with the Bays one length in the lead. Competing with them were N. Wharf, E. Simmons, E. Simpson and G. Simpson of the Royal Canadian Pay Corps.

The second heat of a four race was captured by the home crew against the army. Other events on the program was a canoe doubles race, in which two Indians, Frisanoook and Abel Joe, were the winners. A canoe-tilting contest was won by J. Albany, an Indian.

Adding variety to the afternoon's program were other novelty events such as canoe tug-of-war, canoe centipede, in which the contestants paddle with their hands; a greasy pole contest and a log birling event in which the participants were garbed in loggers' apparel and heavy caulked boots.

In the evening the club held a dance at their clubhouse. Prizes and a vote of thanks to the members were presented by Rex. Iskey. It was announced that crews of the J.B.A.A. will take part in a regatta to be held at Shawnigan Lake on July 19.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Manager Roger Peckinpaugh of Cleveland Indians announced last night outfielder Roy Weatherly has been suspended indefinitely without pay "for not hustling as he should."

The suspension came as a sequel to a fine handed Weatherly by Peckinpaugh, who accused the veteran outfielder of not hustling during the Indians' games with Chicago White Sox last Sunday.

DiMaggio Equals All-time Record

Cards Back In National Leadership

Joe DiMaggio, New York Yankees' mighty hitter, stood one notch below an all-time baseball record today. The great slugging outfielder banged three hits in yesterday's doubleheader against Boston Red Sox to tie the all-time Big League record set by Willie Keeler in 1897, established before fairs were counted as strikes, of hitting successfully in 44 consecutive games.

But though DiMaggio kept his blazing hitting pace unimpaired, the Yankees' record of hitting home runs in each of 25 consecutive games was halted when they failed to connect for a circuit blow in the first contest. They had smashed the previous mark of 17 straight games set by Detroit Tigers last year.

The New Yorkers won both games 7 to 2 and 10 to 4, but the scores were the least worry of the 52,832 fans who jammed Yankee Stadium to yell encouragement to their hero.

Though the Yanks were busily chalking up new records, their nearest rival, Cleveland, was busily cutting a half game off the New Yorkers' first place lead in the league standing by beating St. Louis Browns 10 to 6 in a night game. The Indians slammed in four runs in the second inning, added another in the third, two more in each of the fourth and fifth innings, and another in the sixth, to lead 10 to 3 at the end of that inning.

CANADIAN DOES WELL

Phil Marchildon, Canadian rookie righthander, hurled his best game of the season in another American League night contest. He held Washington Senators to four hits as the Philadelphia Athletics walloped them 10 to 1. Sammy Chapman drove in five of the 10 runs with a homer, triple and a walk with the bags full.

Another good pitching effort was made at a day game at Chicago when Paul Trout allowed Chicago White Sox three hits in winning 5 to 1 for Detroit Tigers. The Tigers banged out 12 hits off Edgar Smith.

St. Louis Cardinals took over undisputed possession of first place in the National League with an 11 to 7 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates, helped out by the hitting of Johnny Mize and Johnny Hopp. A big third inning in which they knocked out six runs gave Boston Braves a 6 to 4 triumph over New York Giants. Braves sent 11 batters to the plate and made six hits into as many runs.

Philadelphia Phillies came up from the league cellar to best Brooklyn 6 to 4 in a contest that went 10 innings. The defeat shook the Dodgers down to second place from a tie at the top with the St. Louis Cardinals. The winning margin was provided by Stan Benjamin, who singled with the bases loaded in the 10th.

COAST LEAGUE

Hollywood, after stumbling around in the Coast League's second division all season, looks like a surprise contender for a payable finish.

A five-run barrage in the 10th inning gave the stars a 6 to 1 victory over San Francisco last night, and continued the winning streak that humbled league standing Sacramento last week five games out of seven.

The win jumped the Stars into a virtual tie with the harassed Seals and Los Angeles for fourth place. Only a hairs' breadth separates the three teams in percentage points.

San Diego reshuffled positions again with Seattle, going back into second place by nipping the Rainiers 3 to 2.

Sacramento recovered some of its lost ground by manhandling cellarite Portland in both games of a double-header. The Solons won the opener 3 to 0, with Don Gutteridge driving in all three runs, and the nightcap 5 to 1.

Oakland's victory starved Acorns glutted themselves on hits in smashing Los Angeles 14 to 3. The Oaks pounded out 17 safe blows off three Angel hurlers.

Bays Register Lacrosse Win

James Bay kept the annual Dominion Day lacrosse trophy in Victoria for another year yesterday by virtue of a last period barrage of 12 goals that blew an otherwise drum-tight game to the four winds and defeated Nanaimo Cal-Aides 22 to 12. For the first three periods the island men threw monkey wrench after monkey wrench into the Bay machinery, thoroughly disorganized it in the second period and then saw their dreams drift away in the final because of penalties.

The coal city squad was one of the fastest ever to leave a draught inside the local box, it passed well, and when its members fired long range shots goalward, the ball just whistled. The initial period of play was fast and bumpy. The visitors, on the whole, were smaller, but had no qualms when it came to bodying and other means of hard checking. Ernie Ball opened the scoring after four minutes of play with Bill Gornall increasing things a few seconds later. Then Nanaimo's R. Stevens retaliated, this being followed by a stinger by teammate Willie White.

Everything jockeyed from thereon, the score at the end of the opener being 4 to 3 for Bays. The second period saw a goal by Reg. Allen in the first few seconds, and from then on, until halftime, it was all Nanaimo. Bays might just as well have been spectators as the terrific redskin triumvirate of Doug, Don and Willie White knifed through and around their defence to lead a scoring parade of five goals without a return. Halftime count was 8 to 5. Nanaimo had the distinctive honor of leading the Bays at this point, something which local competition has yet to do this season.

Starting the third period, the up-landers were hit right in the solar plexus when two of their men suddenly took up the seat of honor in the penalty box. Bays utilized this advantage, part of which lasted for five minutes, to shove in five goals to their opponents' one. The next period saw the up-landers again struck by the same bad luck, and again the Bays took advantage, this time sending their shots in veritable buckshot fashion against goalie Jim Ross.

High scorers for the local team was their famous smiling blond, Norm Baker, who sided up the boards from his defence position time and again to hit the hem with six that counted. Don White, the finish-off man of the Indian trio, accounted for five of his team's goals.

In the preliminary, McLean's Bakery just squeezed past an all-star local junior team 12 to 11. Alderman W. H. Davies, chairman of the Civic Celebrations Committee, presented members of the winning teams in both games with trophies.

Burglar Escapes
But Drops Loot

Disturbed while going down a fire escape after breaking into the automobile department of McLennan, McFeely and Prior Ltd., Johnson Street, at about 2 yesterday morning, a thief abandoned the articles he had stolen and made good his escape.

The thief took a set of socket wrenches and a quantity of shotgun shells from the store. He dropped them in a vacant lot.

Bert Cox, foreman for the store which was broken into, told city police he heard someone on the roof of the store while he was in his room at the Westholme Hotel.
Looking out he saw the burglar and shouted to him to stop or he would shoot.

The thief kept going down the fire escape and after dropping the stolen goods, ran towards Pandora Avenue.

Robert Burns, another resident of the hotel, and H. A. M. Denny of the Home Guard, also said they saw the man drop his loot and escape.

Students Hear
$24,000 Violin

The violin of an eighteenth century master sang today to students of the Victoria Summer School as Miss Inez Lauritano,
New York, opened the cultural program arranged for the 1941 session with a recital in the High School auditorium.

The instrument, purchased by a patroness for Miss Lauritano's use at a price of $24,000, was made in 1742 by Joseph Guarneri del Gesù, a Cremona masterpiece ranking equally with those of Stradivari.

To the violin, played in former years by such outstanding conductor figures as Leonard and Wieniawski, Miss Lauritano lent
the technical ability and warmth of expression of a highly accomplished musician, a performer who has the unique distinction of being the only person who has twice won the coveted Naumberg prize.

A student of the violin at four,
she toured with the orchestra directed by her father, a conductor and mathematics professor of Naples, at the age of six and has since increased her abilities with study under such teachers as Leopold Auer, under whom Jascha Heifetz studied. At present she is receiving assistance from Persinger, teacher of Yehudi Menuhin.

PROGRAM

Included in her program today were Mendelssohn's Concerto in E minor, Allegro, Andante and Allegretto Vivace, Kabalevsky's
Improvisation, Samazeuilh's
Chant d'Espagne and the De
Falla-Kochanski Ritual Fire
Dance.

The rapt audience declined to let the performer retire at the end of her program, recalling her twice for encores.

Providing sympathetic accompaniment, which added much to the charm of the presentation, was Miss Lauritano's younger sister Iris, a piano artist in her

DAYLIGHT SAVING ORDER ISSUED

Daylight saving goes into effect at midnight on Sunday and remains until October 31, 1942, under terms of the official provincial government order announcement today.

The period was named in this fashion, it was explained, because the Daylight Saving Act requires that a specific time within the year be fixed for the clock advance.

If daylight saving is still considered necessary at the end of October next year a further order may be passed.

As previously indicated by Premier Pattullo the order carries daylight saving all through next winter. Under its terms the official time in British Columbia is set as seven hours behind Greenwich standard time.

Actually this will leave the province nine hours behind London, which has two hours daylight saving.

Egg prices jumped another 2 cents on all grades today. The new prices are: To the producer, grade A large 28 cents, grade A medium 27 cents, grade A pullets
25 cents; wholesale to retail,
grade A large 32 cents, grade A
medium 31 cents, grade A pullets
29 cents.

OVER HALF PAID

More than half Victoria's 1941 tax levy had been collected at the end of June, figures from the city assessor-collector's depart-

At the end of last month $760, 442 had been received in prepayments. At the corresponding date in 1940, the collections were $755, 483.

A gain was also shown in arrears, with collections listed at $98,825, compared to $96,101 for

In both cases the amount outstanding for 1941 is considerably below that for 1940, making the increases all the more remark-

Dick Lemos Puts Scalzo to Sleep

LOS ANGELES (AP)—There was gay music in the cantinas and unrestrained joy in Little Mexico today. Little Mexico, after years of dreams and wasted hopes, had a world champion fighter.

Young Richard Lemos, born within the shadow of the Old Mission in the heart of Los Angeles, won the National Boxing Association featherweight title last night with a spectacular five-round knockout over Pete Scalzo of New York.

For four rounds the two fought on even terms. Then, as the fifth started, Lemos, something of an oddity because he is a switch-hitter, shifted to southpaw style and proceeded to wreck the game little easterner.

He winged Scalzo with a left swing and for fully a minute kept Petey hemmed in. Then he let fly with a left haymaker.

Scalzo dropped for a nine count. He was in distress when he reached his feet. One more left hit his target, the Scalzo jaw. Petey pitched over sideways, landing almost head down on the canvas. At nine he made a feeble effort to rise. But he couldn't.

Plane Workers Get Wage Raise

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Intra-union bickering flared today a few hours before C.I.O.-United Automobile Workers and North American Aviation Inc. officials met to sign a union contract granting $7,000,000 a year in wage increases to 9,000 production employees.

Low Michener, West Coast director of the Congress of Industrial Organizations-U.A.W. who was suspended for his part in calling a strike at the plant June 5, wired President Phillip Murray of the C.I.O. in Washington, contending the contract was forced on the workers. He accused Richard T. Frankenstein, C.I.O. vice-president in charge of aviation, of collaborating with company officials.

Murray previously had telegraphed the local union "congratulations on such an amazing achievement" in negotiating the contract.

Employees ratified the contract late yesterday. Terms recommended by the national defence mediation board had been approved earlier in the day by company and union officials.

Included in the settlement were provisions for a 75-cent minimum hourly wage, except that beginners start at 60 cents and advance to 75 in three months; a blanket 10 cents an hour hike for all production employees, and a union shop. The minimum had been 50 cents an hour.

Myrna Loy on Tour

MYRNA LOY and her husband, ARTHUR HORNBLow, dropped in on Seattle by air on what the Hollywood couple said was their first vacation trip in two years.

The motion picture actress and her producer husband said they planned to motor around the Pacific Northwest and into the Canadian Rockies. They arrived by United Air Lines plane, while a chauffeur brought their car north. They may visit Vancouver Island.

Canadians Make Delivery

Fly Bombers to Britain To Finish Fighter Course

By DOUGLAS AMARON

LONDON (CP)—Three Canadians share the distinction of being the first fliers "posted" to the trans-Atlantic ferry service so they might get to England in a hurry to complete their courses as night fighter pilots.

Squadron Leaders N. B. Peterson of Winnipeg and P. Y. Davoud of Kingston, Ont., and P. Lt. M. Lipton of Halifax were at the Central Flying School at Trenton, Ont., when 6 ders came for them to proceed to England.

The orders added that each would fly a bomber across the Atlantic. Royal Canadian Air Force officers have been loaned to the Ministry of Aircraft production for the purpose of ferrying aircraft, but this was the first time any members of the R.C.A.F. not in the ferry service had been given the job of flying planes across the ocean with the object of serving overseas.

BIG NEW PLANT FOR BOEING

SEATTLE (AP)—The Boeing Company, builders of big 4-motored army bombers, launched out today into new national defence work with plans for another big plant to build flying boats, in large numbers, for the United States Navy.

The government will build immediately a big new airplane assembly plant on Lake Washington, at nearby Renton, for use by Boeing for "quantity production" of such craft.

The plant will rank as one of the largest flying boat factories in the country.

With the plant's completion, Boeing will have expanded its capacity here, at Wichita and Vancouver, B.C., in terms of floor space—10 times since before the war, a Boeing spokesman said.

U.S. Bermuda Base Is Commissioned

HAMILTON, Bermuda (CP cable)—The first unit in the chain of United States air bases on British soil that will string from Newfoundland to South America was formally placed in commission yesterday on Tucker's Island.

The bustle of construction work on the little island halted momentarily as Capt. U.S. James, commandant of the new base in this colony, read the order from Navy Secretary Frank Knox declaring that "the U.S.A. naval air station in Bermuda is hereby established." The naval base itself had been commissioned April 7.

British and U.S. officials attended the ceremony.

New Navy Emblem For Free French

LONDON (CP)—Credit for the choice of the Cross of Lorraine as the emblem of the Free French forces of Gen. Charles de Gaulle belongs to Admiral Emile Muselier.

In a London speech he disclosed that one of the first orders he issued after the Free French navy was organized specified that vessels should fly the French tricolor at the poop and a square blue pennant bearing a red cross of Lorraine at the prow.

He said he chose the Lorraine Cross "because we wanted an emblem in opposition to the crooked cross of the Nazis—and also in memory of my father who came from Lorraine."

Jasper Fishing Good

JASPER PARK—Speckled trout fishing in the Maligne watershed is now rated better than for many years. Reports from fishing parties who already have visited Medicine and Maligne Lakes, are that larger and better-fished fish are being caught this season. Several "button" fish have been registered from the fly-fishing area at the head of the Maligne River, the latest being a father and son combination, A. E. Ponting of Berkeley, Calif., and his 15-year-old son, Peter.

Reid Promoted To Commodore

OTTAWA (CP)—Announcement of the promotion of Capt. H. E. Reid, deputy chief of the naval staff at Royal Canadian navy headquarters, to the rank of commodore, was made last night.

Commodore Reid, a former officer commanding the Canadian Atlantic coast and formerly on the Pacific station, is a war-torn veteran of the Canadian navy. A native of Portage du Fort, Que., he was born in 1897 and entered the Royal Navy College in 1912.

During the first Great War he served in various ships of the Royal Navy and was attached to H.M.S. Attack when she was mined and sunk in 1917. He has commanded the Patria, the Seyo, the Skeena and the Fraser.

Skipper Censured

SAN PEDRO, Calif.—Capt. S. A. Gates, master of the 5,165-ton freighter Iowan which went aground on Government Point near Santa Barbara June 12, was censured yesterday at a bureau of marine inspection and navigation hearing for failing to take depth soundings.

Capt. Gates testified he checked his position by radio direction finder and the Point Conception fog signal, but ordered the vessel to proceed without taking soundings. He said the direction from which the fog signals came indicated he could clear the point.

Capt. Francis W. Richardson, head of the examining board, interrupted the testimony to criticize Capt. Gates.

Damage to the Iowan was estimated at $500,000. It was refloated.

No U.S. War Vessels In Any Combats

WASHINGTON (AP)—Navy Secretary Frank Knox flatly stated today no United States vessels on Atlantic patrols had engaged in convoying, had become involved in combat, had suffered any loss of life in their crews or any loss of equipment.

The question of patrol operation was raised at a press conference at which the navy chief also was interrogated about criticism in Congress of his demand this week that the United States seize on the present moment to sweep "the German menace" from the Atlantic.

Repeatedly, the secretary declined to reply to the criticisms or to say whether the speech in which he made the demand had Presidential or cabinet approval. At length, however, when asked whether it would "be fair to say you are sticking by your guns on the speech," Knox boomed: "Yes, of course."

Senator Burton Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, said yesterday Knox should be removed from office for making such a speech.

Norwegian Tanker Regina Goes Down

NEW YORK (AP)—Maritime circles said today the Norwegian motorship tanker Regina, a vessel used in carrying oil from North America to Britain, has been sunk in the Atlantic.

The 9,545-ton vessel, built in 1937, sailed under British orders after the conquest of Norway. The fate of her crew was unknown here and in Oslo.

FERRYING BOMBERS

VANCOUVER (CP)—Arthur Finch, a wireless operator who will shortly ferry American-made bombers to the Royal Air Force in Britain, said here today he had been flying planes across the Pacific from San Diego, Calif. He stated he could give no other details.

Mr. Finch, chief wireless operator on an American liner before the war, is here on a visit with his wife, staying at the home of her parents.

Broughton Freed Of Errol Murder

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony (CP)—Sir Delves Broughton, 57, was acquitted today of a charge of murder in connection with the death of the Earl of Erroll, Hereditary High Constable of Scotland. The jury deliberated 3½ hours on evidence presented to a colonial court intermittently since mid-March, the longest trial in the history of the colony.

Lord Erroll was found shot through the head in an automobile parked on a moonlit road last January 24 a few hours after he had left a dinner party attended by Sir Delves and Lady Broughton. The Broughtons had been married in December at Durban, South Africa, and came here for their honeymoon.

A police statement read in court early in the trial quoted Sir Delves as saying his wife and the Earl were in love and planned to marry once a divorce could be arranged.

Sir Delves and his bride made a pact before their wedding, the statement said, under which he agreed to leave his wife if they ever had differences. Sir Delves took a "philosophical" attitude toward the attachment between his bride and the Earl when it became known to him, the statement said, adding he dropped a note from his bride into Lord Erroll's grave.

21-year-olds Will Be Called By Army

OTTAWA (CP)—The 21-year-old class of single men is expected to provide sufficient men so that few 22-year-olds will be called to start compulsory military training in Canada during July, it is said here.

But the government has made provision for adequate reserves for future call-ups by notifying, through a proclamation, all single men of 21, 22, 23 and 24 years inclusive, that they are subject to the reserve army call.

In August it is expected the number of men called above the age of 21 will be greater and it will increase as time goes on.

The proclamation calling up men of 21, 22, 23 and 24 years for four months' compulsory military training was issued Monday night. Those 21-year-olds who already have served one month in a military camp under the old 30-day training system will be required to serve three months more.

For this call-up the basis of determining age is July 1, 1940, as was the case when compulsory training was inaugurated last year.

It is anticipated some 227,000 men in the 21, 22, 23 and 24-year classes will rate as physically fit under army standards. Of these 104,000 already have been called for training.

Herridge Demands Conscriptio Election

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. W. D. Herridge, originator of the New Democracy movement and former Canadian minister to the United States, in a statement issued here called for a general election on the issue of conscription.

Text of the statement follows: "The Prime Minister's renewed pledge against conscription, given at Vancouver on June 30, is in effect a pledge that Canada will not make its maximum contribution to the war. Are Canadians going to stand for that?"

"This pledge will cause dismay in Britain and disgust in America. For it is given at a time when our imperiled Empire is calling urgently to Canada for total war. This is Canada's official answer to that call."

"If there is any manhood in this country we will reverse this answer. The time for a show-down has come. The issue is Mackenzie King and his policy on conscription against the honor of Canada and the security of the Empire. The first of July is a good day on which to raise this issue. We must compel the Prime Minister to submit this issue to the people. We must have a general election without delay. The Mackenzie King government must be opposed in every constituency in Canada by a candidate who stands for total war. We must constitutionally purge the man and the government who have brought discredit and dishonor to our country."

Blackfellows Perform Old-time 'Kangaroo Dance'

Yesterday we were speaking about the blackfellows of Australia, some of the oddest people ever found on earth. They have dark brown, almost black, skins. An old custom among them was to try to cure disease by driving out "bad spirits." It was supposed that the illness had been caused by some enemy in another tribe.

Little blackfellow girl losing tooth.

In certain villages the medicine men spoke of "poison bones" which entered the bodies of the sick. They went to the side of a sick person and made believe that they took a poison bone from his arm or chest or leg. In certain cases the medicine men, or "wizards," held up small pieces of bone to show what had been taken out. At other times they said, "The poison bone is of a kind which can't be seen. We have taken it out, but you can't see it."

Still other medicine men cared for sick persons by pulling out their teeth. The teeth might be as sound as could be wished, but there was pain and it was supposed the trouble could be stopped by pulling one or more teeth.

Another custom grew up of knocking teeth from the mouths of girls. Foolish as this seems to us, the blackfellows supposed it made the girl better looking! The teeth knocked out usually were in the front of the mouth, and were second teeth.

Some of the cruel and silly customs of the blackfellows have come to an end. The white settlers have taught the natives better ways to care for themselves. Yet there still are some blackfellows who live so far away that whites seldom visit them. For this reason they have kept to their old ways to a greater extent.

There still are blackfellows who perform the old "kangaroo dance." This was copied from movements of the largest of the native animals of Australia.

In the kangaroo dance, a number of men—as many as 80 or 90—form a line and crouch like kangaroos. Striking their hands on the ground and singing loudly, they follow the leader in short bounds. Now and then they make an extra effort to leap into the air. In their leaps they go up as much as five feet, but even so, they do not equal the bounds of a giant kangaroo. The dancing line goes past a fire, and the jumpers barely miss landing in the flames.

HOROSCOPE

Adverse aspects are noted for today. Pluto and Venus vibrations are discordant causing anger and controversy. Faulty judgment and extravagance may prevail. It is a poor time to make plans for the future. The seers advise persons to stay away from unfamiliar subjects lest they become involved in heated arguments. Women should relax from their usual routine and pay special attention to their appearance. As the month wears on Canada will play an increasingly important part in the Battle of the Atlantic. There may be news of an even larger shipbuilding program. Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of an important year. Children born on this day may be generous and impulsive.

Pupils in Recital

The concert and entertainment provided by Madame Dobree, assisted by Miss Dorothy Cox's dancing pupils, with the violin playing by Miss Patricia Straughan, and her accompanist, Miss Helen McRae, proved a great success. There was a crowded audience in the Y.W.C.A. parlors, and Madame Dobree was congratulated by all who attended. Major Jukes gave an address on "Women's Opportunities in the Coming Order."

Taking part in the program were: Mary Lou Allen, who sang as well as played; dances by Bernice Atkins, Vera Blackmore, Garry Richardson, Irene Atkins, Belle Luscombe; piano solos by Harry Frackson, Muriel Jordan, GANGES — Harbour House was the scene of a delightful musical evening June 26, when, in aid of Ganges Chapter I.O.D.E. war fund, the pupils of Mrs. Doris Crofton rendered a program including solos, duets and trios. One of the outstanding items was the remarkable performance of Patricia Jamesd, aged 9, who this year ranked third in class for 11 years at the Vancouver Musical Festival. Her rendering of Bocchini's Minuet was given with expression unusual in so young a child.

The final meeting for the summer months of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Gulf Islands Hospital was held with Mrs. W. M. Moutat presiding. The financial statement showed a balance of $45 in the bank. Tea hostesses were Mrs. E. Lowe and Mrs. Butler.

Officers and members of Ganges Women's Institute had an enjoyable day June 27 when they were hosts to the Lake Hill "Victoria" Women's Institute, members of which came over to Salt Spring Island and traveled to Welby Bay, summer home of Mrs. N. W. Wilson, honorary secretary of Ganges Institute. The party was further augmented by representatives from South Salt Spring Women's Institute.

Victoria Track Stars Do Well

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two University of Washington track stars, Bob Smith and Kjell Qvale, provided keen competition at a Dominion Day track and field meet held here yesterday by the Vancouver Police Benevolent Association.

Victoria stars showed well in some of the open events, and took top honors in special events open to members of His Majesty's forces only.

Smith won the 220 yards and 440 yards open events, and was second in the 100-yard dash, won by Qvale, who was second in the 220 and third in the 440.

Times were considered fast on the cinder track, but no meet records were broken.

William Clarke and Pte. John Stewart led the Victoria stars.
